VDC Renews ISO 9001: 2015 Certification

February 18, 2021

Video Display Corporation (OTC:VIDE), a world-class supplier of display systems, displays, display components, simulation solutions as well as TEMPEST products and services today announced the successful completion of its International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 9001:2015 audit for its Cocoa manufacturing facility in Cocoa, FL.

The audit was performed by Perry Johnson Registrars on December 2nd, and VDC passed the most recent version of the audit with zero non-conformances, the best result possible. The internationally recognized ISO 9001 standard is applicable to any manufacturing or service industry.

“This certification confirms that our quality management system consistently provides outstanding products and services that meet our customers’ needs,” said Ron Ordway, CEO of Video Display Corporation. “Our team is incredibly proud to be recognized for our exemplary quality and safety record and continuous improvements to our processes.”
